

THIRD CALL

127 proposals to be fully assessed

127 project applications that were submitted to the third call for proposals will be fully assessed by the end of 2018. This was decided by programme Member States in their meeting in Vienna on 24 April following a relevance check of all eligible applications. Lead applicants of proposals that did not pass the relevance checks will be informed shortly in the coming days.

Vote for our workshop ideas

Help design the agenda of the European Week of Regions and Cities 2018 by voting for your favourite sessions. We submitted two proposals:

- ➔ #cooperationiscentral - Why we need cooperation more than ever
- ➔ Idea Lab on the future of transnational cooperation

To realise them we need your vote. You will find the sessions under the cluster Territorial Development.

Vote here before 27 April

Transnational cooperation projects bring benefits to central European regions and their citizens. But what does that really mean?

Together with other transnational programmes Interreg CENTRAL EUROPE collected 10 good reasons for transnational cooperation - now and in the future.
