

Draft Regulations

THE FUTURE OF COHESION

.....

The European Commission has published draft regulations, which will define the future framework of Cohesion Policy and Interreg.

The proposal sets to modernise Cohesion Policy with more tailored approach to regional development, more focus on key investment priorities, and fewer and clearer rules.

OUR STORIES

Our cooperation projects bring concrete benefits to regions and citizens in central Europe.

Together with other transnational programmes we collected 10 good reasons for transnational cooperation. At the same time, we have started to collect the best stories from our projects.
